

Puns from the North...

Santa Takes the Pole Position.

Part One

pun A play on words; the humorous use of words or phrases, especially those that sound alike, for the intentional purpose of giving them a different meaning.

Riddles and puns working together are a laugh-a-minute team. Sign them on as part of Santa's crew, and you have Puns from the North with Santa himself in the pole position.

Rev up your punnybone, get in the race, and lap the leader by spotting the pun-filled response to each riddle below. Write the letters of the correct answers in the blanks to the left.

- _____ 1. What do elves learn in school?
(A) the elf-abet
(B) misschievement
(C) Toyota
(D) painting
- _____ 2. What do you get when you cross a snowman with a vampire?
(A) a Draculacicle
(B) frozen fangs
(C) frostbite
(D) snow chips
- _____ 3. What do you call a cat on the beach at Christmas time?
(A) Cool Cat
(B) Sandy Claws
(C) Yuletide
(D) Merry Mew
- _____ 4. What do snowmen eat for breakfast?
(A) ice cream
(B) Rice Krispies
(C) popsicles
(D) snowflakes
- _____ 5. Why does Santa deliver Christmas gifts by going down chimneys?
(A) He doesn't want to carry around a bunch of door keys.
(B) It soots him.
(C) He has tunnel vision.
(D) It's an open invitation.
- _____ 6. Why doesn't all the soot that Santa gets on him make him sick?
(A) He has had his flue shot.
(B) He has an immunity clause.
(C) He brushes it off before it can germinate.
(D) It just isn't suitable.

